

AGAPE HEALTH CARE SCHOOLS

PhT-PHARMACY TECHNICIAN * NATIONAL EXAM PREP

Week 01:

- Reading Pharmacy Terms and abbreviations on prescriptions (how to read a prescription)
- Brand name medications and converting to generic name medications.
- Look alike and sound alike medications
- Math practice

Week 02:

- The prescription process/reordering medications on a wants or needs list.
- How to assess order authenticity (verifying a DEA Number)
- Gathering the information on a prescription/verifying information with patients and insurance companies
- Controlled substance dispensing laws.
- Reviewing brand name and generic name medications
- Math practice

Week 03:

- Major classes of medications and what they are used for
- Math conversions (weight, length, volume, rate)
- Continue to review brand name and generic name medications
- Give examples of drugs with Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategy(REWS)
- Math practice

Week 04:

- Aseptic techniques practices
- Sterile and non-sterile compounding techniques and equipment
- History of Pharmacy
- Continue to review brand name and generic name medications
- Review math conversions
- Math practice

Week 05:

- Daily story problems/scenarios for complete order processing practice
- Comprehensive exam practice
- Math practice